

ROCC PLC March Report

Blue Lakes

For this season, the FOREST SERVICE is working with San Juan Mountains Association on some plans to have a trail ambassador in the area for the summer full time as well as have Erica come back to help with volunteer efforts to help with education and leave no trace.

The committee will meet in the next month and decide upon their future involvement with this initiative.